

I am interested to participate in the following working groups of the DGK:

(Please here the working group(s) that best match your field of expertise and research)

- |       |     |   |
|-------|-----|---|
| AK 1  | [ ] | Biological Structures   |
| AK 2  | [ ] | High Pressure Crystallography   |
| AK 3  | [ ] | Electron Microscopy   |
| AK 4  | [ ] | Noncrystalline or Partial Crystalline Structures  |
| AK 5  | [ ] | Crystal Physics   |
| AK 6  | [ ] | Molecule Structures   |
| AK 7  | [ ] | Neutron Diffraction   |
| AK 9  | [ ] | Theoretical Crystallography   |
| AK 10 | [ ] | Microscopy  |
| AK 11 | [ ] | Synchrotron Radiation and High Resolution X-ray Diffractometry,Reflectometry and Tomography |
| AK 12 | [ ] | Spectroscopy  |
| AK 13 | [ ] | Powder Diffractometry   |
| AK 14 | [ ] | Computational Crystallography   |
| AK 15 | [ ] | Mineralogical and Technical Crystallography   |
| AK 16 | [ ] | Aperiodic Crystals  |
| AK 17 | [ ] | Crystallography in Teaching   |
| AK 19 | [ ] | Crystal Chemistry   |
| AK 20 | [ ] | Crystallography in Materials Science  |
| AK 21 | [ ] | Young Crystallographers   |

Membership dues of the Deutsche Gesellschaft für Kristallographie e.V.

The following is valid on 15th March 2021. Membership dues might change according to the decisions of the General Assembly of the DGK.

The annual dues

- must be paid for the current year until January 31.
- should be paid preferably via bank collection (Bankeinzug)

The annual due are listed in the following table:

A	Regular Members	35 € (+ 5€ donation*)
B	Student Members	10 €
D	PhD Students (up to age 31.)	10 €	upon request
E	Unemployed Members	10 €	upon request
F	Retired Members	10 € (+ 5€ donation*)	upon request
G	Nonpersonal Members	requires agreement with the executive board

A retired member of age 65 or older may apply for a lifelong membership via a one-time payment of 120 €.

*The donation will be used for the prize money for the Waltrude-and-Friedrich-Liebau-Prize for the Promotion of Interdisciplinarity in Crystallography. Members who wish to participate in the direct debit procedure and do not wish to donate must file an objection.
