3.) Special Issue of "Young Crystallographers"

We need your support for the special issue at your university, institute or research center!

4.) Open positions

We need a new responsible person for our social media accounts!

5.) Blog - Research, teaching and study during a pandemic

We start our series of blog articles about one year of pandemic. Now we need your help and your stories and experiences with online teaching, online research or online studying. Are you interested in a better and easier exchange of materials for online teaching?

6.) Open End!

Hang out with other young crystallographers and enjoy a drink of your choice ;)
